

The following services will migrate to the five-day week from January 1, 2007:

Department	Services/Functions
Agriculture, Fisheries and Conservation Department	Applications for various permits and certificates for trade or import/export purposes, Endangered Species Resource Centre and Fisheries Education Centre ¹
Companies Registry	Applications for incorporation and registration of companies, receipt of documents, registration of documents, applications for Money Lenders Licences and public searches
Department of Health	Registration services for medical and healthcare professionals, pharmaceutical services, registration and licensing services relating to Chinese medicines, special preventive programme (on HIV/AIDS and Viral Hepatitis), school dental clinics, dental units in hospitals, Sai Ying Pun dermatological clinic and Chai Wan social hygiene clinic
Department of Justice	Shroff for receiving payment of debts/damages
Education and Manpower Bureau	Support services to schools, teachers and the general public including school places allocation service (Lui Kee Education Services Centre), special education services (including special education resource service and speech therapy services), educational psychology services, Regional Education Offices and Guidance and Discipline Section
Electrical and Mechanical Services Department	Registration services for electrical workers/contractors/competent persons, gas installers/contractors, LPG cylinder wagons, lifts and escalators, builders' lifts/tower working platforms and amusement rides
Labour Department	Processing of sick leave clearance for employees

¹ The Fisheries Education Centre will be closed on Mondays and Sundays with extended service hours on Saturdays.

Department	Services/Functions
	claiming work injury compensation by Occupational Medicine Unit
Legal Aid Department	Family litigation and insolvency matters, services dealing with criminal matters, Receipt and Dispatch Unit at the headquarters and shroff offices
Marine Department	Licensing and port formalities at four Marine Offices and advance booking of professional ship surveying and inspection service
Social Welfare Department	Services for offenders (including probation service, Community Service Orders Scheme) and medical social services at Department of Health's Kowloon Bay Integrated Treatment Centre
Transport Department	Road driving tests and driving ability assessment services to people with disabilities
Water Supplies Department	Customer Enquiry Centres and meter testing services