

Table 2

Rate of increase in government expenditures on healthcare, housing, education and welfare facilities in the years in which the last five population census and by-census were conducted

Government expenditure items	1991	1996	2001	2006	2011
Expenditure on healthcare and its percentage in the total government expenditure
Public hospitals
Primary healthcare (e.g. services provided by the Department of Health)
Public health and related community education
Others
Expenditure on education and its percentage in the total government expenditure
Pre-primary education
Primary and secondary education
University and tertiary education
Vocational training
Others
Expenditure on social welfare and its percentage in the total government expenditure
Comprehensive Social Security Assistance
Old Age Allowance
Childcare and family services
Services for the elderly
Services for the youth
Services for persons with disabilities
Others
Expenditure on housing and its percentage in the total government expenditure
Construction of public rental housing units
Construction of Home Ownership Scheme units
Construction of Sandwich Class Housing Scheme units
Others
Expenditure on infrastructures and its percentage in the total government expenditure
Transport infrastructures
Major infrastructures
Others					