

(A) Key Facts of CE and Mrs. Tsang's Travels Involving Private Passages

Destination	Date	Duration of trip	Accommodation	Private Passages Taken	Total Payment Made by Mr. &amp; Mrs. Tsang for the Private Passages
Japan	October 2009	Three nights	Hotel (charges paid by Mr. & Mrs. Tsang)	Chartered jet	$188,000 (the share of total costs including charter fees, fuel, parking etc. for two people)
Macau	April 2011	Two nights	At the private yacht of a friend	A one-way yacht ride from Macau to Hong Kong	$500 (amount corresponding to two tickets of one-way Macau-to-Hong Kong commercial ferry ride)
Phuket, Thailand	February 2012	Three nights	At the private yacht of a friend	Private jet	$5,900 (amount corresponding to two round-trip economy class flight tickets between Hong Kong and Phuket)

Macau	February 2012	Two nights	At the private yacht of a friend	A one-way yacht ride from Macau to Hong Kong	$500 (amount corresponding to two tickets of one-way Macau-to-Hong Kong commercial ferry ride)

(B) Key Facts of CE's Private Wine Collection Sold to Mr. Jim Thompson

- About 1,600 bottles, collected since the 1980s.
- Most were bought by Mr Tsang, with a small number given by friends as gifts and accepted under permitted circumstances in accordance with the rules.
- Mr. Jim Thompson bought the whole collection at a price based on professional valuation in 2010, and CE donated all the proceeds, totalling $2 million, to the Red Cross, Community Chest, and Society for the Promotion of Hospice Care.
- The donations were properly reported in CE's tax return, and the tax deduction claimed in accordance with the Inland Revenue Ordinance.

(C) Key Facts of CE's Rental Residence in Shenzhen

- CE will rent a 630m<sup>2</sup> apartment in East Pacific Garden, Shenzhen and live there temporarily upon the conclusion of his term of office in July 2012.
- The rental agreement was signed in February 2012. The three-year lease will commence in July 2012, at the market rate of RMB800,000 (about HK$1 million) per annum.
- The agreement includes the provision of renovation by the developer, but not domestic helpers or chauffeurs.