

Annex 3

Breakdown of number of persons with disabilities in the civil service by type of disabilities (more or less the same as the classification of the Hon Tam) from 2009 to 2012 (Note) is set out below:

Type of Disabilities	2009	2010	2011	2012
Physical disability	1 754	1 768	1 739	1 750
Visual impairment	484	465	456	462
Hearing impairment	280	295	302	320
Ex-mentally ill persons	284	300	309	330
Intellectual disability	20	20	18	19
Visceral disability	403	455	481	494
Others (including speech impairment, autism, specific learning difficulties, etc.)	13	13	12	16
Total	3 238	3 316	3 317	3 391
Persons with disabilities as a percentage of the total number of civil servants	2%	2%	2%	2%

Note: The cut-off date of the relevant statistics is March 31 of each year. We do not have readily available information as of September 2012.