

Annex:

Not subject to mandatory charge

Where necessary for food hygiene reasons, foodstuffs (such as lunch boxes and fresh meat or vegetables normally sold in wet markets) may be excluded from the mandatory plastic shopping bag charge.

Subject to mandatory charge

Members of the public should practise "Bring Your Own Bag" for any food, drink and medicine for human and animal consumption that has been properly packaged to segregate the product from the outside environment.