

Annex

The areas available for development, land use zoning and current status of the 13 restored landfills are summarized in the table below:

Restored landfill [District]	Land use zoning	Landfill area [flat area available for afteruse]* (hectare)	Current status	Remarks
Sai Tso Wan (Kwun Tong District)	Open Space/ Green Belt	9 [2]	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The landfill has been developed as Sai Tso Wan Recreation Ground and open for public use since April 2004.</li> </ul>
Jordan Valley (Kwun Tong District)	Open Space	11 [5]	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The landfill has been developed as Jordan Valley Park and open for public use since August 2010.</li> </ul>
Ngau Chi Wan (Wong Tai Sin District)	Open Space	8 [4]	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The landfill has been developed as Ngau Chi Wan Park and open for public use since September 2010.</li> </ul>
Ma Tso Lung (North District)	Government/ Institution/ Community	2 [1]	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Since 2000, the landfill has been handed over to the Tung Wah Group of Hospitals (TWGH) for recreational uses and the public may participate in the activities organised by TWGH.</li> </ul>
Siu Lang Shui (Tuen Mun District)	Site of Special Scientific Interest/ Green Belt/ a small portion for Government/ Institution/ Community	12 [1]	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The “Site of Special Scientific Interest” in the landfill is a place for butterfly over-wintering phenomenon; it should be conserved as far as possible.</li> <li>The whole landfill is not suitable for development.</li> </ul>
Gin Drinkers Bay [Kwai Tsing District]	Open Space	29 [7]	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The Hong Kong Cycling Association has been granted a land licence for the development of a BMX park on the lower platform [with about 2 hectares of flat area] with funding from</li> </ul>

Annex

Restored landfill [District]	Land use zoning	Landfill area [flat area available for afteruse]* (hectare)	Current status	Remarks
			the Hong Kong Jockey Club. Commissioned in October 2009, it has served as the venue for the BMX events of the East Asian Games 2009 as well as other international events. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The Leisure and Cultural Services Department (LCSD) is planning to develop Kwai Chung Park at the remaining area [with about 5 hectares of flat land] of the landfill site.</li> </ul>
Tseung Kwan O Stage I [Sai Kung District]	Recreation	68 [10]	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The cycle track cum pedestrian footpath along the waterfront of the landfill and the Tseung Kwan O Sitting Out Area cum Pet Garden [with about 1 hectare of flat area in total] were open for public use in June 2012 and June 2013 respectively.</li> <li>• The remaining area of the landfill site [with about 9 hectares of flat area] is available for the development of recreational facilities. Some organisations have proposed to develop a football training centre and a baseball training pitch at the site. Detailed plans are under preparation.</li> </ul>
Tseung Kwan O Stage II & III [Sai Kung District]	Open Space	42 [2]	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Since 2004, the HK Air Cadet Corps has been using the upper platform [with about 0.5 hectares of flat area] as a model aeroplane training field.</li> <li>• A local university has</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The landfill mainly comprises slopes</li> </ul>

Annex

Restored landfill [District]	Land use zoning	Landfill area [flat area available for afteruse]* (hectare)	Current status	Remarks
			proposed to develop an “Eco-Garden” for scientific research and environmental education on the middle and lower platforms [with about 1.5 hectares of flat area].
Shuen Wan (Tai Po District)	Other Specified Uses “Golf Course”	55 [15]	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Most of the site [with about 15 hectares of flat area] is currently used for a temporary golf driving range for public use.</li> </ul>
Pillar Point Valley (Tuen Mun District)	Green Belt	38 [6]	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● The Hong Kong Shooting Association (HKSA) has been granted a land licence for the development of a shooting range on the top platform [with about 6 hectares of flat area]. According to HKSA, preparation work is in progress.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● The top platform is adjacent to the Tsing Shan Firing Range</li> </ul>
Ngau Tam Mei (Yuen Long District)	Green Belt	2 [1]	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● The landfill [with about 1 hectare of flat area] may be developed for suitable and compatible uses.</li> <li>● Due to the narrow passageway leading to the landfill, it is more suitable for the landfill to maintain its current land use, i.e. as Green Belt within the district.</li> </ul>
Ma Yau Tong Central (Kwun Tong District)	Open Space/ Green Belt	11 [1]	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● The landfill [with about 1 hectare of flat area] may be developed for suitable and compatible uses.</li> <li>● The LCSD has reserved the site for Lam Tim Park (Phase II). However, various recreational facilities, such as Lam Tin</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● The landfill mainly comprises slopes.</li> </ul>

Annex

Restored landfill [District]	Land use zoning	Landfill area [flat area available for afteruse]* (hectare)	Current status	Remarks
			Park (Phase I) and Lam Tin Service Reservoir Playground, are currently available for use by residents in the vicinity. With the consent of Kwun Tong District Council, the LCSD has developed part of the site [with about 0.1 hectare of flat area] as a sitting out area which has been open for public use since January 2011.
Ma Yau Tong West (Kwun Tong District)	Open space/ Green Belt	6 [1]	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● The landfill [with about 1 hectare of flat area] may be developed for suitable and compatible uses.</li> <li>● The LCSD has reserved the site for open space purposes. However, various recreational facilities, such as Hiu Ming Street Playground and Hiu Kwong Street Playground, are currently available for use by residents in the vicinity. With the consent of Kwun Tong District Council, the LCSD has developed part of the site [with about 0.1 hectare of flat area] as a sitting out area which has been open for public use since September 2011.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● The landfill mainly comprises slopes.</li> </ul>

Note: * [flat area available for afteruse] means the net area after excluding the area of slopes, land occupied by restoration facilities and land use specified in the “Remarks” column.