

Grade ^{Note 2}		Number of New Recruits	Number of Departed Staff ^{Note 3}	Number of NCSC Staff Appointed as Civil Servants ^{Note 4}
Structural Engineers	a	22	8	14
	b	0	18
Buildings Surveyors	a	26	7	22
	b	Note 5	24
Survey Officers	a	Note 5	5	Note 5
	b	0	6
Technical Officers	a	Note 5	4	Note 5
	b	0	3
Building Safety Assistants	a	This post is an NCSC post		Note5
	b	Note 6	8
Building Safety Officers	a	This post is an NCSC post		Note5
	b	0	21
Clerical Grades Staff	a	Note 7		Note 8
	b	Note5	49
Motor Drivers	a	Note 9		Not Applicable
	b	There are no motor drivers employed under NCSC in the Buildings Department

Note 1 : Year of carrying out recruitment exercise

Note 2 : (a) refers to civil servants, (b) refers to NCSC staff

Note 3 : Includes the numbers of those retired, resigned, transferred, deceased, who did not pass their probation and NCSC staff who were appointed as civil servants

Note 4 : Includes the numbers of Building Surveyors (Contract), Structural Engineers (Contract), Survey/Technical Officers (Contract), Building Safety Assistants/Officers appointed as civil servants

Note 5 : The BD is now recruiting Survey Officers (Buildings), Technical Officers (Structure), Building Surveyors (Contract) and contract clerical staff

Note 6 : The BD has since 2009/2010 stopped recruiting Building Safety Assistants

Note 7 : The General Grades Office is responsible for the recruitment and transfer of civil servants of the clerical grades. Whenever there are vacancies in the Department, the General Grades Office will make timely arrangement for substitutes to fill those vacancies.

Note 8 : The General Grades Office is responsible for the recruitment of civil servants of the clerical grades. The BD has no information related to successful applications for civil servant posts by contract clerical staff

Note 9 : The Government Logistics Department is responsible for the recruitment of motor drivers. Whenever there are vacancies in the Department, the Government Logistics Department will make timely arrangement for substitutes to fill those vacancies.

Grade ^{Note 2}		Number of New Recruits	Number of Departed Staff ^{Note 3}	Number of NCSC Staff Appointed as Civil Servants ^{Note 4}
Structural Engineers	a	0	8	0
	b	25	15
Buildings Surveyors	a	0	17	0
	b	19	13
Survey Officers	a	0	3	0
	b	25	6
Technical Officers	a	0	5	0
	b	15	12
Building Safety Assistants	a	This post is an NCSC post		0
	b	Note 5	30
Building Safety Officers	a	This post is an NCSC post		0
	b	28	30
Clerical Grades Staff	a	Note 6		Note 7
	b	36	45
Motor Drivers	a	Note 8		Not Applicable
	b	There are no motor drivers employed under NCSC in the Buildings Department

Note 1 : Year of carrying out recruitment exercise

Note 2 : (a) refers to civil servants, (b) refers to NCSC staff

Note 3 : Includes the numbers of those retired, resigned, transferred, deceased, who did not pass their probation and NCSC staff who were appointed as civil servants

Note 4 : Includes the numbers of Building Surveyors (Contract), Structural Engineers (Contract), Survey/Technical Officers (Contract), Building Safety Assistants/Officers appointed as civil servants

Note 5 : The BD has since 2009/2010 stopped recruiting Building Safety Assistants

Note 6 : The General Grades Office is responsible for the recruitment and transfer of civil servants of the clerical grades. Whenever there are vacancies in the Department, the General Grades Office will make timely arrangement for substitutes to fill those vacancies.

Note 7 : The General Grades Office is responsible for the recruitment of civil servants of the clerical grades. The BD has no information related to successful applications for civil servant posts by contract clerical staff

Note 8 : The Government Logistics Department is responsible for the recruitment of motor drivers. Whenever there are vacancies in the Department, the Government Logistics Department will make timely arrangement for substitutes to fill those vacancies.

Grade ^{Note 2}		Number of New Recruits	Number of Departed Staff ^{Note 3}	Number of NCSC Staff Appointed as Civil Servants ^{Note 4}
Structural Engineers	a	0	10	0
	b	27	35
Buildings Surveyors	a	59	8	29
	b	50	33
Survey Officers	a	60	9	43
	b	27	25
Technical Officers	a	0	2	0
	b	8	22
Building Safety Assistants	a	This post is an NCSC post		Already included in the 4 rows above
	b	Note 5	52
Building Safety Officers	a	This post is an NCSC post		Already included in the 4 rows above
	b	21	32
Clerical Grades Staff	a	Note 6		Note 7
	b	198	50
Motor Drivers	a	Note 8		Not Applicable
	b	There are no motor drivers employed under NCSC in the Buildings Department

Note 1 : Year of carrying out recruitment exercise

Note 2 : (a) refers to civil servants, (b) refers to NCSC staff

Note 3 : Includes the numbers of those retired, resigned, transferred, deceased, who did not pass their probation and NCSC staff who were appointed as civil servants

Note 4 : Includes the numbers of Building Surveyors (Contract), Structural Engineers (Contract), Survey/Technical Officers (Contract), Building Safety Assistants/Officers appointed as civil servants

Note 5 : The BD has since 2009/2010 stopped recruiting Building Safety Assistants

Note 6 : The General Grades Office is responsible for the recruitment and transfer of civil servants of the clerical grades. Whenever there are vacancies in the Department, the General Grades Office will make timely arrangement for substitutes to fill those vacancies.

Note 7 : The General Grades Office is responsible for the recruitment of civil servants of the clerical grades. The BD has no information related to successful applications for civil servant posts by contract clerical staff

Note 8 : The Government Logistics Department is responsible for the recruitment of motor drivers. Whenever there are vacancies in the Department, the Government Logistics Department will make timely arrangement for substitutes to fill those vacancies.

Grade ^{Note 2}		Number of New Recruits	Number of Departed Staff ^{Note 3}	Number of NCSC Staff Appointed as Civil Servants ^{Note 4}
Structural Engineers	a	74	5	42
	b	0	9
Buildings Surveyors	a	0	7	0
	b	0	18
Survey Officers	a	0	8	0
	b	0	24
Technical Officers	a	58	3	25
	b	0	23
Building Safety Assistants	a	This post is an NCSC post		Already included in the 4 rows above
	b	Note 5	74
Building Safety Officers	a	This post is an NCSC post		Already included in the 4 rows above
	b	0	44
Clerical Grades Staff	a	Note 6		Note 7
	b	0	10
Motor Drivers	a	Note 8		Not Applicable
	b	There are no motor drivers employed under NCSC in the Buildings Department

Note 1 : Year of carrying out recruitment exercise

Note 2 : (a) refers to civil servants, (b) refers to NCSC staff

Note 3 : Includes the numbers of those retired, resigned, transferred, deceased, who did not pass their probation and NCSC staff who were appointed as civil servants

Note 4 : Includes the numbers of Building Surveyors (Contract), Structural Engineers (Contract), Survey/Technical Officers (Contract), Building Safety Assistants/Officers appointed as civil servants

Note 5 : The BD has since 2009/2010 stopped recruiting Building Safety Assistants

Note 6 : The General Grades Office is responsible for the recruitment and transfer of civil servants of the clerical grades. Whenever there are vacancies in the Department, the General Grades Office will make timely arrangement for substitutes to fill those vacancies.

Note 7 : The General Grades Office is responsible for the recruitment of civil servants of the clerical grades. The BD has no information related to successful applications for civil servant posts by contract clerical staff

Note 8 : The Government Logistics Department is responsible for the recruitment of motor drivers. Whenever there are vacancies in the Department, the Government Logistics Department will make timely arrangement for substitutes to fill those vacancies.

Grade ^{Note 2}		Number of New Recruits	Number of Departed Staff ^{Note 3}	Number of NCSC Staff Appointed as Civil Servants ^{Note 4}
Structural Engineers	a	0	3	0
	b	0	10
Buildings Surveyors	a	32	11	24
	b	7	37
Survey Officers	a	0	2	0
	b	0	31
Technical Officers	a	0	1	0
	b	0	21
Building Safety Assistants	a	This post is an NCSC post		Already included in the 4 rows above
	b	Note 5	59
Building Safety Officers	a	This post is an NCSC post		Already included in the 4 rows above
	b	9	58
Clerical Grades Staff	a	Note 6		Note 7
	b	0	11
Motor Drivers	a	Note 8		Not Applicable
	b	There are no motor drivers employed under NCSC in the Buildings Department

Note 1 : Year of carrying out recruitment exercise

Note 2 : (a) refers to civil servants \ (b) refers to NCSC staff

Note 3 : Includes the numbers of those retired, resigned, transferred, deceased, who did not pass their probation and NCSC staff who were appointed as civil servants

Note 4 : Includes the numbers of Building Surveyors (Contract), Structural Engineers (Contract), Survey/Technical Officers (Contract), Building Safety Assistants/Officers appointed as civil servants

Note 5 : The BD has since 2009/2010 stopped recruiting Building Safety Assistants

Note 6 : The General Grades Office is responsible for the recruitment and transfer of civil servants of the clerical grades. Whenever there are vacancies in the Department, the General Grades Office will make timely arrangement for substitutes to fill those vacancies.

Note 7 : The General Grades Office is responsible for the recruitment of civil servants of the clerical grades. The BD has no information related to successful applications for civil servant posts by contract clerical staff

Note 8 : The Government Logistics Department is responsible for the recruitment of motor drivers. Whenever there are vacancies in the Department, the Government Logistics Department will make timely arrangement for substitutes to fill those vacancies.