

Information of International Mail Centre Pop-up Card

The pop-up card carries the images of the International Mail Centre with a postal vehicle of Hongkong Post rendered in the medium of paper art. It was manufactured in Hong Kong by Wai Ji Hong Yip Company Limited, a sheltered workshop which provides employment and job training opportunities for people with disabilities to prepare them for earning their own living and integration in society.

The card is available at $48 each. As an optional service for orders making through ShopThruPost from 22 February to 8 March 2014, the envelope for the card purchased will be affixed with a $1.70 “Year of the Horse” stamp and date-stamped with the special postmark at a small fee of $1.70.

The pop-up card makes a unique souvenir and is perfect for sending messages to friends and relatives. You also show your support for an inclusive community with every purchase. Hurry while stock lasts.
