

Withdrawal of “Local Mail Postage” Stamps and “Air Mail Postage” Stamps

Arrangements at Close of Business on 23 July 2014

The two stamps bearing “Local Mail Postage” and “Air Mail Postage” indications will be withdrawn from general sale at all post offices, electronic stamp vending machines, convenience stores and other non-post office outlets at the close of business on Wednesday, 23 July 2014. Uncancelled stamps already purchased, however, can continue to be used, whether on their own or in combination with other stamps, for the prepayment of postage. The “Local Mail Postage” stamp carries value at the prevailing postage rate for a Local Mail item not exceeding 30g and “Air Mail Postage” stamp carries value at the prevailing postage rate for an Air Mail item to Zone 2 not exceeding 20g, i.e. $1.7 and $3.7 respectively at present.
