

The numbers of on-the-job training places for the industries covered by the various programmes under the Pilot Schemes in the 2014/15 school year

Printing industry - Programme type (i)

Area of industry	Number of places
Production planning/control
Digital printing
Desktop publishing
Offset printing
Operation of computerized prepress and output system
Cylinder printing
CTP production
Operation of finishing system and equipment
Others

Watch and clock industry - Programme type (i)

Area of industry	Number of places
Watch calibration and testing
Disassembling, assembling and maintenance of exterior parts of watches
Disassembling, assembling and maintenance of movements of clocks and watches
After-sale maintenance services for clocks and watches
Others

Electrical and mechanical services industry - Programme type (i)

Area of industry	Number of places
Building services engineering
Lift and escalator engineering
Electrical engineering
Mechanical engineering
Air-conditioning and refrigeration engineering
Fire services engineering
Welding technology and inspection
Gas engineering
Others

Electrical and mechanical services industry and construction industry - Programme type (ii)

Area of industry	Number of places
Building services engineering
Construction
Electrical engineering
Mechanical engineering
Others

Electrical and mechanical services industry and construction industry - Programme type (iii)

Area of industry	Number of places
Building services engineering
Construction
Electrical engineering
Mechanical engineering
Others

Retail industry - Programme type (iv)

Area of industry	Number of places
Cosmetics
Clocks and watches and jewellery
Fashion and accessories
General merchandise
Electronic and electrical appliances/telecommunications products
Furniture and household wares
Food
Fitness and beauty chain stores
Supermarkets
Convenience shops
Others	