- Note:
1. The number of SEN students pursuing UGC-funded programmes is a provisional figure.
 2. The number of SEN students is based on information as declared by individual students.
 3. There is no separate category for “intellectual disabilities” under the data collection of UGC-funded institutions. Students with such type of disability, if any, would be covered under “Others”.
 4. Including students with multiple types of disabilities. Data presented may not reflect the difference in the classification of SEN types across institutions.
