

Statistics on 2014/15 Seasonal Influenza Vaccination

The 2014/15 Government Vaccination Programme (GVP), including Residential Care Home Vaccination Programme (RVP), and Vaccination Subsidy Scheme (VSS), including the Childhood Influenza Vaccination Subsidy Scheme (CIVSS) and the Elderly Vaccination Subsidy Scheme (EVSS), commenced on November 3, 2014 and October 6, 2014 respectively. The following figures are as at February 15, 2015.

Category of target groups	Public / Private sector	No. of recipients (no. of doses if different)
Elderly aged 65 or above (including elderly persons living in residential care homes)	GVP	183 305
	EVSS	174 238
Persons under 65 years with chronic illness	GVP	9 867
Persons aged 50 to 64 years receiving Comprehensive Social Security Assistance	GVP	1 723
Pregnant women receiving Comprehensive Social Security Assistance	GVP	20
Long-stay residents of institutions for persons with disabilities	GVP	12 655
Healthcare workers in public sector and residential care homes	GVP	31 829
Children between the age of six months and less than six years	GVP	2 245 (2 885) Δ
	CIVSS	52 904 (64 317) Δ
Poultry workers	GVP	3 923
Pig farmers and pig slaughtering industry personnel	GVP	216
Total		472 925 (484 978) Δ

Δ Some children who had no seasonal influenza vaccination before received two doses.