¹ Massage courses and manipulative therapy courses offered by the Employees Retraining Board include full-time placement-tied courses and Skills Upgrading Scheme Plus (SUS Plus) courses. Full-time placement-tied courses are designed for the unemployed. Training bodies provide placement follow-up services for a period of three to six months for trainees who have completed such courses. SUS Plus courses target at both the unemployed and in-service workers with no placement follow-up services. Placement information is therefore unavailable for trainees who have completed such courses.
