

Names of the existing operators of the three slaughterhouses in the territory and information on their operations

The Sheung Shui Slaughterhouse, built and owned by the Government, is currently operated by Ng Fung Hong for providing slaughtering service. The Operation Services Agreement entered between Ng Fung Hong and the Government commenced in August 2009, initially for a term of four years and renewable for two three-year terms up to July 2019.

The property of the Tsuen Wan Slaughterhouse is privately-owned. The slaughtering service is operated by Tsuen Wan Slaughter House Limited.

The property of the Cheung Chau Slaughterhouse is publicly-owned, rented to the trustee of Cheung Chau Meat Merchant Association for providing slaughtering service. The current lease will expire in September 2018.
