Details of Dr Hon Junius HO Kwan-yiu's misbehaviour and breach of oath under Article 104 of the Basic Law are particularized as follows:

Public speech advocating killing and inciting violence

- (1) On 17 September 2017, Dr Hon Junius HO Kwan-yiu made a speech at the "anti-independence, anti-cold-bloodedness, anti-bogus academic" rally which aimed to have Mr Benny TAI Yiu-ting, Associate Professor of the Department of Law of the University of Hong Kong, sacked, advocating killing and inciting violence which included echoing the speech of Mr TSANG Shu-wo, Chairman of the Ping Shan Rural Committee, that "Anyone advocating Hong Kong independence not admitting they are Chinese are outsiders, we must kill them", and chanting "No mercy" in support of Mr TSANG's speech. During a media interview after the rally, Dr HO went on to advocate killing and incite violence by saying inappropriately "if Hong Kong independence advocates are subverting the fate of the country and have the 1.3 billion people in the Motherland and Hong Kong pay a huge price, why not kill such advocates?". Such expressions fail to meet the level of ethical conduct and responsibility expected of a Legislative Council ("LegCo") Member.

Contempt of LegCo

- (2) Dr Hon Junius HO Kwan-yiu's public speech which advocated killing and incited violence damages the dignity of LegCo, shows contempt of the powers and functions of LegCo, brings shame on LegCo, and seriously undermines public confidence in the legislature and LegCo Members.

The aforementioned behaviour amounting to misbehaviour and breach of oath

- (3) As a LegCo Member, Dr Hon Junius HO Kwan-yiu made speeches to advocate killing and incite violence in public. Such conduct amounts to misbehaviour and has breached the oath he made at the Council meeting of 12 October 2016 under Article 104 of the Basic Law and the Oaths and Declarations Ordinance (Cap. 11) that he will "serve the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region conscientiously, dutifully, in full accordance with the law, honestly and with integrity", which is the basic duty of a LegCo Member.
