

Legislative Council Q10 (Question)

Annex 1

(a) of the overall demand for nurses in each of the coming 10 years, together with a breakdown set out in the table below

Year	Type of nurses	Hospital Authority	Department of Health	Private Hospitals	Non-governmental organizations	Subsidized, subvented and private residential care homes for the elderly and persons with disabilities	Others	Total
2011-2012	Enrolled nurses
	Enrolled nurses (psychiatric)
	Registered nurses
	Registered nurses (psychiatric)

Legislative Council Q10 (Question)

Annex 2

(b) of the anticipated number of places for the training of nurses in each of the coming 10 years, together with a breakdown set out in the table below

Year	Type of nurses	Universities	Hospital Authority	Private hospitals	Total
2011-2012	Enrolled nurses
	Enrolled nurses (psychiatric)
	Registered nurses
	Registered nurses (Psychiatric)

Legislative Council Q10 (Question)

Annex 3

(c)whether it knows the breakdown of the turnover figures of nurses in the Hospital Authority (HA) in each of the past five years (set out in the table below)

Year	Type of nurses	Experience
		0 to 3 years	4 to 6 years	7 to 10 years	Over 10 years
2005-2006	Enrolled nurses
	Enrolled nurses (psychiatric)
	Registered nurses
	Registered nurses (psychiatric)

Legislative Council Q10 (Question)

Annex 4

(e) given HA's indication that it will offer nursing staff better opportunities for promotion in order to retain nursing staff, whether it knows the breakdown of the number of HA nurses who were promoted to the following ranks in each of the past five years

Rank	2006	2007	2008	2009	2010
Nursing Officer
Advanced Practice Nurse
Nurse Specialist
Senior Nursing Officer
Ward Manager
Department Operations Manager					