Note 1: The rate of increase is a comparison between the number of places in 2001-02 and 2010-11.

Note 2: To meet the change in service needs, some of the places of Residential Special Child Care Centres have been re-engineered as places of Day Special Child Care Centres and Early Education and Training Centres since 2004-05.

Note 3: In 2004-05, owing to the cessation of operation of Po Leung Kuk Pui Nang Hostel, the number of places in Hostel for Moderately Mentally Handicapped Persons was reduced. The resources for the places concerned have been re-allocated to other NGOs for continuous operation of residential services.

Note 4: In 2002-03, some of the Supported Housing places were re-integrated into places in Hostel for Severely Physically Handicapped Persons. Meanwhile, owing to the cessation of operation of SWD's Choi Wan Hostel, the number of places in Hostel for Severely Physically Handicapped Persons was slightly reduced in that year.

Note 5: Homes for the Aged Blind had been transformed into Care-and-Attention Homes for the Aged Blind in stages since 2005-06, and the transformation was completed in 2006-07.

Note 6: Since 2002-03, Supported Housing service has been integrated into Hostel for Severely Physically Handicapped Persons.

Note 7: In 2004-05 and 2005-06, some of the resources for Small Group Homes for Mildly Mentally Handicapped Children were re-allocated for providing additional places in Supported Hostels.

Note 8: The Skills Centres operated by NGOs have been re-engineered and transformed as Integrated Vocational Training Centres since 2003-04.
