About the Organisers:

Social Innovation and Entrepreneurship Development Fund (SIE Fund) encourages and promotes innovations that support poverty relief. By facilitating cross-sector collaboration in sharing and allocating resources to groom and coach entrepreneurs, the SIE Fund is tasked to help incubate and implement new ideas with the effect of alleviating and preventing poverty and social exclusion.

Youth.gov.hk is a one-stop portal that provides online services for young people aged between 15 and 24. Jointly launched by the Efficiency Unit under the Chief Secretary for Administration's Office and RTHK, Youth.gov.hk has come into services since 2007. Collaborating with more than 40 Hong Kong Government departments/bureaus and more than 150 related organisations, Youth.gov.hk encourages the young people to establish close contact with mainstream society and supports them in living a healthy and happy life.
