

LCQ10

Hospital	Nature of the incident	Date and location of the incident	Mental health condition of the victim	The type to which the alleged offender belonged	Follow-up measures taken by the Hospital Authority
Pamela Youde Nethersole Eastern Hospital	The relative of a male patient aged 23 with autism and mild intellectual disabilities complained that the patient was asked by another male patient in the same ward to take off his trousers and let that man touch his private parts.	In an acute psychiatric ward on June 27, 2014	The victim has behavioral problems and needs repeated admissions. He is weak in self-control and has, on various occasions, touched the private parts of the ward staff, the ward's other patients and personnel.	Male adult patient	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>■ The attending doctor and ward manager immediately met with the victim and his relative to understand the situation.</li> <li>■ The victim was transferred to another acute psychiatric ward on the same day for subsequent follow-up.</li> <li>■ The incident was reported to the Police immediately for further investigation.</li> </ul>
Pamela Youde Nethersole Eastern Hospital	A male patient aged 40 with psychosis was allegedly sexually harassed in toilet by another male patient in the same ward.	In an acute psychiatric ward around early August 2015	Due to psychosis, the victim was in an unstable mental condition at that time and was unable to give a detailed account of the incident.	Male adult patient	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>■ The attending doctor and the ward manager immediately met with the victim to understand the situation.</li> <li>■ The victim was transferred to a special ward for further observation.</li> <li>■ The victim's relative was informed of the incident and arrangement was made for him to meet the attending doctor on the same day.</li> <li>■ The incident was reported to the Police immediately for further investigation.</li> </ul>
Kwai Chung Hospital	A male patient aged 13 with Asperger's Syndrome and hyperactivity disorder	In an adult psychiatric ward on December	The victim was in a generally stable mental condition	Male adult patient	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>■ The attending doctor immediately met with the victim to understand the situation.</li> <li>■ The victim was transferred to the child and adolescent psychiatric ward for subsequent follow-up.</li> </ul>

Hospital	Nature of the incident	Date and location of the incident	Mental health condition of the victim	The type to which the alleged offender belonged	Follow-up measures taken by the Hospital Authority reported that he was asked by another male patient in the same ward to perform oral sex, but the victim claimed that he did not do so.	11, 2015			<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>■ A Multi-disciplinary Case Conference on Protection of Child with Suspected Abuse was convened.</li> <li>■ The incident was reported to the Police immediately for further investigation. Subsequently, the male suspect was admitted to the Siu Lam Psychiatric Centre.</li> <li>■ The hospital took immediate action to review the clinical guidelines for the admission of child patients to adult wards to ensure their safety.</li> </ul>
United Christian Hospital	A male patient aged 13 with mild intellectual disabilities, hyperactivity disorder and oppositional defiant disorder reported that he was sexually assaulted in toilet by another male patient in the same ward and was asked to help him masturbate.	In a psychiatric ward on December 15, 2016	The victim has attention deficit disorder, and emotional and behavioural problems.	Male adult patient	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>■ The attending doctor immediately met with the victim patient to understand the situation.</li> <li>■ The male suspect was later transferred to Kowloon Hospital for separation.</li> <li>■ The case was reported to the Family and Child Protective Services Unit under the Social Welfare Department.</li> <li>■ The incident was reported to the Police immediately for further investigation.</li> <li>■ The hospital took immediate measures to enhance ward surveillance.</li> <li>■ An expert group was set up at once to follow up on the case.</li> <li>■ The hospital, together with the Hospital Authority Head Office (HAHO), formulated short and long term measures (please refer to part (3) of the main reply).</li> </ul>
Kowloon Hospital	A male patient aged 17 with psychosis, autism and hyperactivity disorder complained to his relative that he was forced to perform oral sex and sexually assaulted in the ward	In an adult psychiatric ward around December 2016 to early January	The victim suffers from anxiety disorder and auditory hallucination.	Male adult patient	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>■ As one of the suspects was tested HIV positive, the victim was immediately sent to the Queen Elizabeth Hospital for further examination and prophylactic treatment. He was then transferred to the child &amp; adolescence psychiatric department of the United Christian Hospital for further follow-up.</li> <li>■ The case manager and senior child psychiatrist provided emotional support for the victim and his relatives.</li> <li>■ The incident was reported to the Police immediately for further</li> </ul>

Hospital	Nature of the incident	Date and location of the incident	Mental health condition of the victim	The type to which the alleged offender belonged	Follow-up measures taken by the Hospital Authority
	and toilet by four male patients in the same ward.	2017			investigation. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>■ The hospital took immediate measures to enhance ward surveillance.</li> <li>■ An expert group was set up at once to follow up on the case.</li> <li>■ The hospital, together with the HAHO, formulated short and long term measures (please refer to part (3) of the main reply).</li> </ul>