- Notes:
1. Normally, the tenderer who obtains the highest overall score after technical and price assessment would be awarded the contract. As such, tender award is not solely based on the scores obtained in price or wage assessment.
 2. The computer system of FEHD does not keep record of the relevant information. In view of the large number of contracts involved and the need to check individual cases, there is insufficient time to compile the requested data.
 3. Property management service contractors of HD employ non-skilled workers for cleansing and security duties. Statistics of these property service contracts are excluded from that of HD's cleansing and security contracts.
 4. FEHD figures excluded

Information as at December 2019 is still under compilation and hence not available.
