Medal for Bravery (Gold)

Ms NG Wing-man, Iris (posthumous)

The late Ms NG Wing-man, Iris, a Senior Customs Officer of the Customs and Excise Department (C&ED), is posthumously awarded MBG in recognition of her act of the most conspicuous courage, selflessness and gallantry of the highest order. Ms NG died on duty during an anti-smuggling patrol operation in the North West waters of the territory on 21 January 2020. At the material time, Ms NG led a crew of four Customs Officers to conduct anti-smuggling patrol with a Swallow Water Craft (the Craft). At the time of accident, when approaching the waters in Sha Chau, the Craft was crashed by a cargo vessel without lighting equipment and capsized in a split second. It was a night of waxing crescent with extremely low visibility. With wind speed over 33km/hour, the sea state was particularly rough and unstable. Ms NG and two other Customs Officers were trapped inside the cabin. She was found unconscious upon rescue. Unfortunately, Ms NG was certified dead shortly after arrival at the hospital. Ms NG was an exemplary team leader with high professionalism. Her tragic death is a great loss not only to the C&ED, but also to the community at large.

Mr WONG Cheuk-bond (posthumous)

The late Mr WONG Cheuk-bond, a Customs Officer of the Customs and Excise Department (C&ED), is posthumously awarded MBG in recognition of his act of the most conspicuous courage, selflessness and gallantry of the highest order. Mr WONG died on duty in an anti-smuggling patrol operation in the North West waters of the territory on 21 January 2020. At the material time, he, together with four Customs Officers, conducted anti-smuggling patrol with a Swallow Water Craft (the Craft). He was responsible for the observation and surveillance tasks. At the time of accident, when approaching the waters in Sha Chau, the Craft was crashed by a cargo vessel without lighting equipment and capsized in a split second. It was a night of waxing crescent with extremely low visibility. With wind speed over 33km/hour, the sea state was particularly rough and unstable. Mr WONG and two other Customs Officers were trapped inside the cabin. He was found unconscious upon rescue. Unfortunately, Mr WONG was certified dead shortly after arrival at the hospital. Mr WONG displayed unwavering courage and determination to complete his mission. His tragic death is a great loss not only to C&ED, but also to the community at large.

Mr CHENG Chak-yin

Mr CHENG is awarded MBG in recognition of his most conspicuous courage, selflessness and gallantry of the highest order in a rescue act. On 10 February 2017, in a compartment of an MTR train proceeding to Tsim Sha Tsui Station from Admiralty Station, a passenger suddenly poured thinner over himself and others and then set fire with a lighter. At the scene, the compartment was packed and the fire was rampant, with a number of passengers set alight, including Mr CHENG. Under such a chaotic situation, Mr CHENG spotted a lady passenger lying on the floor with her back on fire. He quickly put out the fire on his own body and then rescued the burning lady by using his bare hands to smother the flames on her back, resulting in serious burn injuries to his own hands. The arsonist (who was himself on fire) then approached the lady and tried to set her alight again by holding her from behind. Mr CHENG kicked the arsonist, keeping him away from the injured lady. Mr CHENG could have the opportunity to withdraw himself from danger by moving to another train compartment. However, he chose to stay at the compartment for the sole purpose of rescuing the lady, thereby continued to expose himself to grave danger. Mr CHENG sustained burn injuries and was admitted to hospital for nearly three months. Not being equipped with any protective equipment, Mr CHENG has fully demonstrated an exceptionally high degree of gallantry and selfless contribution by rescuing others.

Mr LAI Chi-hang, Ben (posthumous)

The late Mr LAI Chi-hang, Ben, a Senior Customs Officer of the Customs and Excise Department (C&ED), is posthumously awarded MBG in recognition of his act of the most conspicuous courage, selflessness and gallantry of the highest order.
