

COVID-19 Vaccination Programme Cases Involving Persons Sent to Hospital

For the past 24 hours ended at 0000 hours on March 3, there were two cases involving medical treatment at hospital.

Community Vaccination Centre at Central Library

1. A female, aged 63, went to the Community Vaccination Centre at Hong Kong Central Library. After receiving the vaccine, she suffered from dizzy, headache, nausea and chest pain. She was sent to Ruttonjee Hospital at 1638 hours. After treatment and observation, she was found in a stable state and was discharged then.

2. A female, aged 61, went to the Community Vaccination Centre at Hong Kong Central Library. After receiving the vaccine, she suffered from palpitation, dizzy and increased blood pressure. She was sent to Ruttonjee Hospital at 1917 hours. After treatment and observation, she was found in a stable state and was discharged then.