

| Date of Issue | Description  |
|---------------|--|
| July 1, 2021  | 1. The 100th Anniversary of the Founding of the Communist Party of China It has been 100 years since the Communist Party of China (CPC) was founded in July 1921. 2021 marks the 100th anniversary of the CPC since its founding. Hongkong Post issues a set of four stamps and a stamp sheetlet in commemoration of this momentous occasion. The 56 beams of the celebration logo signify the CPC's endeavour of striving for advancement that shines all over our country. With the CPC flag in bright red flying, the beams radiate and extend across each of the stamps, presenting the founding and development of the new China led by the CPC, as well as its objectives to seek happiness for the Chinese people, rejuvenation for the Chinese nation, as well as universal brotherhood for the world. The "One Country, Two Systems" principle has been successfully implemented in Hong Kong under the leadership of the CPC and the Central People's Government. Hong Kong, as a special administrative region, has been able to maintain its prosperity and stability, and integrate into the overall development of our country.  |

| Date of Issue   | Description  |
|-----------------|--|
| July 23, 2021   | 2. Games of the XXXII Olympiad Tokyo 2020 The 32nd Olympic Games will be held from 23 July to 8 August 2021 in Tokyo, Japan. To mark this spectacular event, Hongkong Post will release an issue of four stamps under the theme “Games of the XXXII Olympiad Tokyo 2020” on its opening day, featuring sports in which the Hong Kong, China delegation won medals or was eligible to take part in the Olympics before, such as table tennis, windsurfing, cycling and swimming. Images in vivid colours outlined in gold foiling add dynamic appeal to the stamps, and act as a blessing for Hong Kong athletes to achieve their goals in the coming games.  |
| August 25, 2021 | 3. 180th Anniversary of Hong Kong Postal Service Established in 1841, Hongkong Post is one of the earliest government departments established in Hong Kong. Committed to providing fast and reliable postal services for 180 years, it has won recognition from various sectors of the society. We will release a set of six stamps to commemorate this significant occasion. The stamp design showcases Hongkong Post’s development and evolution alongside the pace of the postal market, its effort to meet the changing expectations and needs of customers, and its contribution in creating a new era of smart postal services.                       |

| Date of Issue      | Description   |
|--------------------|---|
| September 16, 2021 | 4. Feel 100% Feel 100% is an original Hong Kong comic and it acquired international fame for winning the Second International Manga Award by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Japan in 2008. It had been adapted into movies and television drama that were popular among the younger generation of the time. The story, set in Hong Kong, depicts an intricate metropolitan love story. Based on the protagonists of this story, Hongkong Post issues a set of six stamps and two stamp sheetlets that will sweep you up into the world of Feel 100%. Licensed products of Culturecom Limited     |

| Date of Issue    | Description   |
|------------------|---|
| October 12, 2021 | 5. World Heritage in China Series No. 10: South China Karst First launched in 2012, “World Heritage in China Series” presents “South China Karst” on its tenth stamp sheetlet which is also the final issue of the series. Karst is a topography with varied forms. It is a unique and magnificent natural wonder created by water dripping through soluble rocks for hundreds of millions of years. Considered as one of the most spectacular humid tropical to subtropical karst landscapes in the world, South China karst spreads over the provinces of Guizhou, Guangxi, Yunnan and Chongqing, and was classified as World Natural Heritage in 2007 and 2014.  |
| October 12, 2021 | 5a. “The Complete World Heritage in China Series” Stamp Sheetlet Hongkong Post will also release a stamp sheetlet under the “World Heritage in China Series” comprising all the ten issues, displaying all the natural and cultural treasures on one sheetlet, making it a valuable collectible that should not be missed.   |

| Date of Issue     | Description   |
|-------------------|---|
| November 16, 2021 | 6. Hong Kong Special Flora Hong Kong is rich in plant resources. Up till now, approximately 3 300 species and varieties of vascular plants have been recorded. Among them, about 2 100 are native species and some of which are named after Hong Kong. Hongkong Post issues a set of six stamps on the theme of “Hong Kong Special Flora”, introducing six species of flowering plants named after Hong Kong with an eye-catching and innovative design.   |
| December 2, 2021  | 7. Movie Scenic Locations in Hong Kong As a world-class city, Hong Kong has a range of scenic locations that have attracted many film-makers to shoot on location. Numerous classics from local and abroad were shot right here in Hong Kong. Hongkong Post will release a set of four stamps titled “Movie Scenic Locations in Hong Kong”, featuring Santa Claus as the leading role who takes us on a tour of memorable film locations throughout the territory. Moreover, the stamps are printed in a gold and silver frame to boost the festive mood and ring in the joyful holidays!  |

Note: All images are for reference only. The actual issue date of each special stamp issue, its range of products and prices and the stamp designs are subject to change and will be announced closer to the date of issue.