

First Round of the Job Creation Scheme
Subsidy Schemes for Fresh Graduates and Young People

Bureaux/ Departments		Subsidy Scheme and its Nature	Job Duration	Number of Jobs (number in brackets represents the number of jobs filled as at end May)	Monthly Subsidy for each Job
1.	Civil Service Bureau	To implement Training-cum-Job Placement Subsidy Scheme for first-time job seekers in collaboration with the Hong Kong Jockey Club	12 months	500 (274)	$10,000 / $15,750 (depending on the nature of the subsidized organisations)
2.	Development Bureau (DEVB)	To implement subsidy scheme for companies to employ graduates in the fields of architecture, surveying, town planning and landscape architecture	18 months	527 (527)	$5,610
3.	DEVB	To implement subsidy scheme for companies to employ assistant professionals in the fields of engineering, architecture, surveying, town planning and landscape architecture	12 months	1 662 (1 662)	$10,000

Bureaux/ Departments		Subsidy Scheme and its Nature	Job Duration	Number of Jobs (number in brackets represents the number of jobs filled as at end May)	Monthly Subsidy for each Job
4.	Environment Bureau	To subsidise enterprises to employ graduates to work in areas related to environmental protection with a view to nurturing talents for the environmental protection sector	18 months	378 (378)	$5,610
5.	Labour Department	To implement subsidy scheme in collaboration with the Hong Kong Chinese Enterprises Association for enterprises to employ university graduates	12 months	2 000 (609)	$5,600
6.	Transport and Housing Bureau	To implement subsidy scheme for the logistics industry to create new logistics-related jobs with a view to providing job opportunities for university graduates	18 months	100 (77)	$5,610

Bureaux/ Departments		Subsidy Scheme and its Nature	Job Duration	Number of Jobs (number in brackets represents the number of jobs filled as at end May)	Monthly Subsidy for each Job
7.	Commerce and Economic Development Bureau (Communications and Creative Industries Branch) [CEDB(CCIB)]	To implement the “Future International Talent Programme” which aims to offer global perspectives and wider exposure to young people through work, in particular those who aspire to pursue careers in the creative industries	12 months	286 (47)	$5,610 / $10,000 (depending on employee’s qualification / work experience)
8.	CEDB(CCIB)	To implement the Telecommunications Opportunities Programme to provide young people with working and training opportunities in the promising telecommunications sector amid the 5G era	12 months	100 (35)	$5,610 / $10,000 (depending on employee’s qualification / work experience)

Bureaux/ Departments		Subsidy Scheme and its Nature	Job Duration	Number of Jobs (number in brackets represents the number of jobs filled as at end May)	Monthly Subsidy for each Job
9.	Financial Services and the Treasury Bureau (FSTB)	To implement the FinTech Anti-epidemic Scheme for Talent Development which aims to subsidise local Fintech companies, start-ups and other companies with Fintech-related operations to create new jobs with a view to enriching the Fintech talent pool of Hong Kong	12 months	1 000 (505)	$10,000
10.	FSTB	To implement subsidy scheme for the financial services sector to create new jobs	12 months	1 500 (1 414)	$10,000
11.	Social Welfare Department	To implement subsidy scheme for subvented elderly and rehabilitation services units to create time-limited jobs	12 months	1 000 (555)	$10,500