July 1, 2022	2. The 25th Anniversary of the Stationing of the Chinese People's Liberation Army in Hong Kong The Chinese People's Liberation Army Hong Kong Garrison (the Hong Kong Garrison) is stationed by the Central People's Government in the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (HKSAR) for defence duties. Since its stationing in the HKSAR on 1 July 1997, the Hong Kong Garrison has upheld the principle of "one country, two systems", the Basic Law, the Law of the People's Republic of China on the Garrisoning of the HKSAR and the National Security Law, and fulfilled the responsibility to safeguard national sovereignty, security and development interests, providing the foundation for the prosperity and stability of Hong Kong. In 2017, a stamp sheetlet was issued to celebrate the stationing of the Hong Kong Garrison in Hong Kong for 20 years. This year, Hongkong Post will issue a stamp sheetlet on the theme of "The 25th Anniversary of the Stationing of the Chinese People's Liberation Army in Hong Kong" to mark this special occasion.

September 22, 2022	4. Intangible Cultural Heritage - Hong Kong Cheongsam Making Technique The Hong Kong cheongsam making technique was inscribed onto the First Intangible Cultural Heritage Inventory of Hong Kong and the Representative List of the Intangible Cultural Heritage of Hong Kong in 2014 and 2017 respectively. It was further inscribed onto the Fifth National List of Intangible Cultural Heritage in 2021. Cheongsam has a long history. Men's cheongsam is socially significant, as it symbolises seniority amongst clansmen in the New Territories. When women's cheongsam became popular in Hong Kong, its sewing technique took up both Eastern and Western costume designs, resulting in the uniqueness in the Hong Kong cheongsam making technique. Hongkong Post will issue special stamps on the theme of “Hong Kong Cheongsam Making Technique” to exhibit the outstanding historical and cultural value of this craftsmanship.
