

Eligible Criteria and Voucher Value for 2022 (Phase II) Consumption Voucher Scheme

Eligibility Criteria

The registrant should fulfil the criteria below^[Note 1] -

- (A) being aged 18 or above on or before 13 June 2022; and
- (B) as at 13 June 2022,
 - (i) being a Hong Kong permanent resident holding a valid Hong Kong Permanent Identity Card ("HKPIC")^[Note 2] or a valid Certificate of Exemption ("EC") issued by the Commissioner of Registration under the Registration of Persons Regulations, Cap. 177A; or
 - (ii) being a Hong Kong resident holding a valid Hong Kong Identity Card ("HKIC")^[Note 2] or EC issued by the Commissioner of Registration under the Registration of Persons Regulations, Cap. 177A, who has come to Hong Kong on Permit for Proceeding to Hong Kong and Macao (commonly known as "One Way Permit") or, who has valid permission to remain in Hong Kong^[Note 3] as a dependant sponsored by (B)(i) above; or
 - (iii) subject to Note 4, being a Hong Kong resident holding a valid HKIC^[Note 2] or EC issued by the Commissioner of Registration under the Registration of Persons Regulations, Cap. 177A, who has valid permission to remain in Hong Kong^[Note 3] and not belonging to the types of persons referred to in (B)(ii) above; and
- (C) not having permanently departed from Hong Kong nor having such intention^[Note 5].

[Note 1: The Hong Kong Special Administrative Region Government ("Government") reserves the right to decide the eligibility of individual registrants after taking into account the specified criteria (i.e. criteria (A) to (C)) and any other factors relating to the individual registrants which the Government considers relevant for the purpose of the 2022 Consumption Voucher Scheme ("Scheme") (including but not limited to ensuring proper use of public funds, preventing abuse of the Scheme, and preventing any disbursement which would be contrary to any applicable legal provisions or requirements).]

[Note 2: A registrant is also considered as fulfilling criterion (B) in respect of the documentary proof on HKPIC or HKIC if he/she is holding an acknowledgement of application for a HKPIC or HKIC (i.e. ROP140/RPO140A) with a valid collection period. For the purpose of the Scheme, HKIC refers to an identity card with the words "Hong Kong Identity Card" on the card face.]

[Note 3: For the purpose of the Scheme, “valid permission to remain in Hong Kong” means permission under the Immigration Ordinance, Cap. 115 to remain in Hong Kong, except permission to remain in Hong Kong as visitors.]

[Note 4: The following persons, though being a Hong Kong resident holding a valid HKIC or EC issued by the Commissioner of Registration under Cap. 177A (where applicable) who has valid permission to remain in Hong Kong, are ineligible for the Scheme -

- any person who is employed as a contract worker from outside Hong Kong under a Government importation of labour scheme; or
- any person who is employed as a domestic helper from outside Hong Kong; or
- any person who is a member of consular post within the meaning of the Consular Relations Ordinance, Cap. 557; or
- any person who is a member of the Hong Kong Garrison; or
- any person who is the holder of a prescribed Central People’s Government travel document.]

[Note 5: For the purpose of the Scheme, in determining whether a person has permanently departed from Hong Kong or has such intention, the Government will take into account, but not limited to, the following factors -

(a) whether the person has been continuously absent from Hong Kong during the period from 18 June 2019 to 12 June 2022, and if so, whether during the said period, he/she was:

- (i) a recipient of assistance under the Portable Comprehensive Social Security Assistance Scheme, allowance under the Guangdong Scheme, or allowance under the Fujian Scheme;
- (ii) studying in a school/university outside Hong Kong which is recognised by the relevant authority;
- (iii) a participant of the Working Holiday Scheme administered by the Labour Department;
- (iv) hospitalised outside Hong Kong for medical reasons;
- (v) performing duties outside Hong Kong for the Government or for a company/organisation located in Hong Kong on a temporary basis*; or accompanying an immediate family member performing such duties; and/or
- (vi) having other exceptional reason(s) as may be determined by the Government as valid for the purpose of the Scheme; and

For the purpose of the Scheme, it means the person is employed by a company or organisation*

located in Hong Kong and has been temporarily deployed to work outside Hong Kong, and has the intention to return to Hong Kong after the deployment.

(b) whether on or before 13 June 2022, the person has submitted any valid claim requests for withdrawal of his/her mandatory provident fund (“MPF”) or benefits under MPF exempted Occupational Retirement Schemes before reaching age 65 on the grounds of permanent departure from Hong Kong under the MPF legislation; and

(c) whether as at 13 June 2022, the person is holding a valid locally-issued HKPIC if he/she is a Hong Kong permanent resident; and

(d) whether there is any evidence or information based on which the Government believes that the person has no intention of returning to Hong Kong in the foreseeable future.]
