

Details of the subsidy schemes administered by government departments or non-governmental organisations or organisations of relevant sectors
acting as the agents
(as at 31 March 2023)

Bureau / Department / Non-governmental Organisation	Scheme	Number of jobs created	Number of jobs filled
Commerce and Economic Development Bureau and Hong Kong Federation of Youth Groups	Telecommunications Opportunities Programme – to provide young people working and training opportunities in the 5G era of the telecommunications sector with a view to broadening their horizons and equipping them with skill sets for career development	81	81
Civil Service Bureau (CSB) and Hong Kong Association of Property Management Companies	Subsidy scheme for the property management industry to create jobs	6 000	6 000
CSB and Hong Kong Institute of Human Resources Management	Subsidy scheme for private companies to create jobs	3 640	2 354
CSB and Hong Kong Jockey Club	Subsidy scheme for four sectors, namely community healthcare, technology for good, corporate community engagement and creative arts for social innovation, to provide job opportunities for first-time job seekers	1 069	549

Bureau / Department / Non-governmental Organisation	Scheme	Number of jobs created	Number of jobs filled
CSB and Hong Kong Council of Social Service	Professional Traineeship Programme for the Ethnic Minorities – to create jobs for ethnic minorities in non-profit organisations, social enterprises and business sector	36	36
Culture, Sports and Tourism Bureau and 14 international chambers of commerce in Hong Kong	Future International Talent Programme – to offer global perspectives and wider exposure to young people who aspire to pursue careers in the creative industries through work	177	177
Development Bureau	Subsidy schemes for the private sector to employ graduates and assistant professionals in the fields of engineering, architecture, surveying, town planning and landscape architecture to enable them to acquire necessary experience with a view to obtaining relevant professional qualifications	6 541	5 061
Environment and Ecology Bureau	Subsidy scheme for companies and organisations to employ fresh graduates of environmental-related disciplines	851	851
Financial Services and the Treasury Bureau (FSTB)	FinTech Anti-epidemic Scheme for Talent Development – to subsidise local FinTech companies, start-ups and other companies with FinTech-related operations to create jobs	1 009	852

Bureau / Department / Non-governmental Organisation	Scheme	Number of jobs created	Number of jobs filled
Financial Services Development Council (Commissioned by the FSTB)	Financial Industry Recruitment Scheme for Tomorrow – to subsidise eligible employers in the financial services sectors, including banks, securities firms, insurance companies, trustees of Mandatory Provident Fund schemes and accounting fields	1 658	1 658
Home Affairs Department and Hong Kong Youth Power Association	Learning Pilot Scheme 2021 – to provide school work and subject tutoring service for junior primary school students from underprivileged families whose learning has been affected by the epidemic and also provide job opportunities for those with a bachelor’s degree or equivalent as part-time tutors	524	524
Innovation and Technology Commission (ITC) and Hong Kong Science and Technology Parks Corporation (HKSTPC)	Subsidise HKSTPC tenants and incubates to create graduates trainees positions in the innovation and technology sector with a view to training them to develop in the sector	398	390
ITC	Testing and Certification Sector Job Creation Scheme – to encourage private testing and certification (T&C) organisations to create more job opportunities, and attract people to join the T&C sector	450	60

Bureau / Department / Non-governmental Organisation	Scheme	Number of jobs created	Number of jobs filled
Department of Justice and the Law Society of Hong Kong	Legal Talent Recruitment Scheme (Trainee Solicitors) – creating new job opportunities for young legal graduates, ensuring a steady and sufficient supply of legal talents and nurturing young legal talents to advance the rule of law	238	230
Labour Department and Hong Kong Chinese Enterprises Association	Subsidy schemes for local Chinese enterprises to employ recent university graduates	2 510	2 510
Social Welfare Department (SWD)	Subsidy Scheme for Elderly and Rehabilitation Service Units – to subsidise SWD subvented organisations to employ young people to work in their elderly and rehabilitation service units	1 780	1 780
Transport and Logistics Bureau and the Chartered Institute of Logistics and Transport in Hong Kong	Subsidy scheme to encourage the logistics industry to create new jobs for recent university graduates	100	100