

Chronic Disease Co-Care Pilot Scheme: Government Subsidy Level & Co-payment Fee

Phase	Service content	Service Provider	Government Subsidy Level	Participant Co-payment Fee
Screening	Consultation	Family Doctor	$196 (one-off)	$120 (one-off)
	Laboratory Investigations	Medical Laboratory	Full subsidy	No additional co-payment fee
Treatment	Consultation (Note)	Family Doctor	$166 per consultation	Co-payment fee as determined by Family Doctor (Government recommendation: $150 per consultation)
	 Drug	Family Doctor	A quarterly subsidy of $105 to Family Doctor for each participant prescribed with chronic diseases drugs under the Scheme Drug List [Family Doctor may procure drugs under Scheme Drug List from designated suppliers at discounted prices]	No additional co-payment fee for drugs under basic tier of the Scheme Drug List
	 Laboratory Investigations	Medical Laboratory	Partially subsidised by Government upon each test item	Co-payment fee charged upon each test item Upon medical assessment, the designated co-payment fee paid by participants in general ranges from $40 to $130 for each test package (each covers 2-5 test items)
	 Nurse Clinic Services	Nurse Clinic	Partially subsidised by Government on each visit Participants will need to pay a certain amount of co-payment fee
	Allied Health Services	Allied Health

Note: Participant Programme Year refers to the 12-month period starting from the day on which a participant enters the treatment phase. The amount of consultation subsidy for the new programme year is counted from the same date each year

- For persons diagnosed with hypertension (HT) / diabetes mellitus (DM) / HT and DM / HT and prediabetes: A maximum of 6 subsidised visits per Participant Programme Year
- For persons diagnosed with prediabetes: A maximum of 4 subsidised visits per Participant Programme Year
- If the actual number of visits exceeds the maximum number of subsidised visits or the participant opts for services and drugs which are not covered by the Scheme, participants are required to pay the fees concerned on their own. They may enquire with their Family Doctor about the fees to be charged

*If the doctor concerned has enrolled in the Elderly Health Care Voucher Scheme, participants may use vouchers to pay the co-payment fee

Elderly Health Care Voucher is applicable*

Medical fee waiver is not applicable