

Statistics of WSM (approximate)
As at end of February 2024

Year	No. of Application			No. of CEP			No. of LN (Note 1)
	Family Applicant	1-Person Applicant	Total	Family Applicant (as a percentage of respective no. of application)	1-Person Applicant (as a percentage of respective no. of application)	Total	Family Applicant (as a percentage of respective no. of CEP)	1-Person Applicant (as a percentage of respective no. of CEP)	Total	Average monthly no. of LN issued (Note 2)
WSM 2018	26,000	34,000	60,000	2,170 (8%)	240 (0.7%)	2,410	1,280 (59%)	140 (58%)	1,420	118
WSM 2019	55,000	80,000	135,000	2,360 (4%)	260 (0.3%)	2,620	1,200 (51%)	130 (50%)	1,330	111
WSM 2020	48,000	69,000	117,000	3,440 (7%)	390 (0.6%)	3,830	1,860 (54%)	220 (56%)	2,080	173
WSM 2022 (Note 3)	45,000	72,000	117,000	3,310 (7%)	370 (0.5%)	3,680	1,690 (51%)	190 (51%)	1,880	157

Note 1 – Excluding the LNs under HOS 2018, HOS 2019 and HOS 2020 where the transaction was cancelled.

Note 2 – Applicants can apply for CEP with a validity period of 12 months from the date of issue. The holder is entitled to purchase a subsidised sale flat with premium not yet paid within the validity period and apply for LN within one month from the date of the Provisional Agreement for Sale and Purchase. The number of LN issued by HA per month is calculated based on the average number of nomination letters issued during the 12-month period.

Note 3 – WSM 2022 is still on-going. The number of LN may be adjusted due to the cancellation of transaction for some cases at the final stage.