4. Hong Kong Museums Collection – Fuyun Xuan Collection of Chinese Snuff Bottles

The Fuyun Xuan Collection is a private collection of Chinese snuff bottles established by late local collector Mr Christopher Sin. His wife, Mrs Josephine Sin, has donated 490 sets of snuff bottles to the Hong Kong Museum of Art, making these cultural gems accessible to a wider public. The small and delicate snuff bottles cover a wide range of craftsmanship, serving as miniature embodiments of Chinese art and craft history. Hongkong Post will release a set of six stamps and two stamp sheetlets themed "Hong Kong Museums Collection - Fuyun Xuan Collection of Chinese Snuff Bottles" to showcase some representative Chinese snuff bottles from the Fuyun Xuan Collection that manifest the exquisite craftsmanship and creativity of Chinese artisans despite their small size.
