

The "iAM Smart" mobile app has launched a new interface design that introduces thematic service categorisations closely related to daily life, while providing personalised settings, making it easier for members of the public to search for and use the services they need.