

Breakdown of the number of cases referred to the law firms for follow-up by PWIF and the number of cases received by the in-house legal team between November 2022 and April 2025

Number of cases referred to the law firms for follow-up		Number of cases received by the in-house legal team
Number of cases with assistance rendered to applicants in filing winding-up/ bankruptcy petitions against employers	418	Number of cases with recommendations made to LD in accordance with PWIO	936
Number of cases not requiring the filing of winding-up /bankruptcy petitions against employers #	88	Number of cases not requiring the making of recommendations #	141
Number of cases under processing	63	Number of cases under processing	39
Total	569	Total	1 116

The reasons for not requiring to file winding-up/bankruptcy petitions against employers and not requiring the making of recommendations mainly include: repayment by employers, filing of winding-up/bankruptcy petitions against employers by other creditors and employers' disputes on employees' claims, etc.