

Terms of Reference of the Committees under the Hong Kong Maritime and Port Development Board

(1) Port Development Committee

- To conduct research, make recommendations and implement initiatives for enhancing the competitiveness of the Hong Kong Port, taking into account salient developments and collaboration opportunities in the international arena, in accordance with the steer of the main Board.

(2) Maritime Services Development Committee

- To conduct research, make recommendations and implement initiatives for strengthening high-value added maritime services in Hong Kong and fostering Hong Kong as a preferred location in the world to base maritime services by leveraging on Hong Kong's strengths, in accordance with the steer of the main Board.

(3) Promotion and External Relations Committee

- To organise and oversee implementation of the annual flagship maritime event – the Hong Kong Maritime Week, overseas promotional visits and other events and activities, and to administer sponsorships, with strong focus on engagement with international organisations and showcasing Hong Kong as an international maritime centre, in accordance with the steer of the main Board.

(4) Manpower Development Committee

- To monitor the supply and demand of maritime and port manpower; formulate manpower strategies, initiatives and programmes to support Hong Kong's maritime and port development; steer and undertake studies and surveys related to maritime manpower development; and advise on and oversee the implementation of maritime-related schemes under the Maritime and Aviation Training Fund and devise new scheme to sustain the availability of trainers on new skills for the industry and the training of talents for green fuel bunkering.