Android version

iOS version

Huawei version

The Water Supplies Department launched a new integrated mobile app "eWater", consolidating the existing WSD mobile apps into a one-stop personalised digital water services information platform with an optimised user interface and enhanced features. "eWater" supports Android, iOS and Huawei devices, which is available for free download at Google Play, Apple App Store, and Huawei AppGallery.