

Minimum requirements regarding knowledge and experience of the responsible person and his deputy(ies) nominated for supervising the manufacture of proprietary Chinese medicines (pCms) under a manufacturer licence in pCms as specified in Schedule 1 to the Chinese Medicines Regulation

	Professional qualifications	Academic qualifications / qualifications	Work experience
(a)	—	(i) hold a bachelor's degree in Chinese medicine awarded by a university in Hong Kong; or (ii) have a qualification which, in the opinion of the Chinese Medicines Board of the Chinese Medicine Council of Hong Kong (CMs Board), is equivalent to that mentioned in subparagraph (i)	have 6 months' practical experience in manufacturing pCms in Hong Kong
(b)	—	(i) hold a diploma in Chinese medicines (CMs) awarded by a university in Hong Kong; (ii) hold a diploma in CMs awarded by the Vocational Training Council (VTC); or (iii) have a qualification which, in the opinion of the CMs Board, is equivalent to that mentioned in subparagraph (i) or (ii)	have 1 year's practical experience in manufacturing pCms in Hong Kong
(c)	Registered or listed Chinese medicine practitioner	—	have 6 months' practical experience in manufacturing pCms in Hong Kong
(d)	A pharmacist registered under the Pharmacy and Poisons Ordinance	(i) hold a postgraduate certificate in CMs awarded by a university in Hong Kong; or (ii) have a qualification which, in the opinion of the CMs Board, is equivalent to that mentioned in subparagraph (i)	have 6 months' practical experience in manufacturing pCms in Hong Kong

(e)	—	(i) hold a certificate in CMs awarded by a university in Hong Kong on completion of a 120 hour course; (ii) hold a certificate in CMs awarded by the VTC on completion of a 120 hour course; or (iii) have a qualification which, in the opinion of the CMs Board, is equivalent to that mentioned in subparagraph (i) or (ii)	have 3 years' practical experience in manufacturing pCms in Hong Kong
(f)	—	—	have 5 years' practical experience in manufacturing pCms in Hong Kong